BACKGROUND

An estimated 550 000 people were displaced within Croatia during 1991-1992. Over the 1992-1995 period, the country received approximately 400 000 refugees from Bosnia and Herzegovina, of which an estimated 120 000 have since acquired Croatian citizenship. In the period from 1991 to 1995, some 250 000 minority Serbs fled Croatia. The authorities have to date registered 133 140 returnees of Serbian ethnicity to and within Croatia, representing around half of those who fled their places of origin.

The Regional Housing Programme (RHP) in Croatia aims to provide durable housing solutions to several categories of refugees, internally displaced persons (IDPs) and returnees either in their places of origin or places of displacement, as well as within institutions of the social welfare system.

To date, 325 housing units have been delivered to almost 1 000 most-vulnerable persons in Croatia, equating to approximately 80% of the total objective of 409 homes.

The Regional Housing Programme (RHP) was established to provide durable housing solutions to vulnerable refugees and displaced persons following the 1991-1995 conflicts on the territory of former Yugoslavia. The RHP is implemented by Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Montenegro and Serbia and mostly financed by the international donor community. The main donor is the European Union. The other donors are the United States of America, Germany, Norway, Switzerland, Italy, Denmark, Turkey, Luxembourg, Spain, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Romania and the Slovak Republic.

This document was produced with the financial assistance of the European Union. The views expressed herein can in no way be taken to reflect the official opinion of the European Union.
